CERTIFICATED FLIGHT INSTRUCTOR COURSE

The Certificated Flight Instructor Course is designed to teach you the fundamentals of instruction, then teach you to instruct on Commercial-level maneuvers, maximum performance take-off and landings, emergency procedures. Most importantly, you will develop the technical and mental skills necessary to train your future students to be proficient and safe pilots. The Certified Flight Instructor Certificate is earned by passing a check ride with an FAA examiner. The Certificated Flight Instructor Course will fully prepare you for this check ride as well as prepare you for a career as a flight instructor.

Requirements: You must hold a Commercial Certificate with Instrument Privileges to qualify for this course. The average course completion time is around 15 hours. Additional instruction may be necessary depending upon the abilities of each individual student. We recommend students fly at least twice per week. Pricing shown below is for a Part 61 program. Pricing for the Part 141 version of this course is available from our staff.

Package Details: Our package includes training materials and flight hours that you will need to complete the course. Purchasing a package locks-in aircraft rental and instruction rates for six (6) months from purchase date, although you will still be subject to an additional charge if you receive the Renter's Insurance discount price and elect to discontinue your coverage. If you complete the program in less time than offered in a package, the remaining funds are available for your personal use.

PACKAGE: $3,466.50*
